

2025

Jan - Jun

Course Outcome

Department of Sanskrit

Four Year Under Graduate course

First Semester:

Paper Code: SAN0100104

Paper Name: Introduction to Sanskrit (Minor)

Course Outcome:-

- The objective of the course is to introduce the students about basics of Vedic and Classical Sanskrit Literature.
- It acquaints the students with different Shastras.
- Students are also acquainted with origin and development of Sanskrit Language and Devanagari Script.

Paper Code: SEC0104503

Paper Name: Functional Sanskrit (SEC)

Course Outcome:-

- The course introduces the students with Sanskrit alphabets with their specialities.
- Students can start preliminary conversation in Sanskrit.
- Students can also write essays and applications along with expression in creative writing.

Paper Code: AEC0100502

Paper Name: Basics of Sanskrit Communication (AEC)

Course Outcome:-

- Students have knowledge about the scientific background of Sanskrit alphabets and Vedic Svaras.
- Students are enable to speak basic Sanskrit.

Second Semester:

Paper Code: SAN0200104

Paper Name: Functional Sanskrit and Yoga (Minor)

Course Outcome:-

- To appropriate the value of Sanskrit language.
- To gain knowledge about the ethical equations of human life which are the root of proper growth and prosperity in the society.
- To appreciate Indian knowledge system that evolved for a holistic development in the society.
- To grasp[the equation of a balanced life style through self-control and self-management.

Paper Code: SEC0209903

Paper Name: Sanskrit Grammar and Translation (SEC)

Course Outcome:-

- The course introduces the students about linguistic relation of Paninian Grammer.
- The course also helps the students to learn about translation theories and the tradition of translation of Assam.
- Students becomn4e adept in translating from Sanskrit and to Sanskrit.

Third Semester:

Paper Code: SAN30104

Paper Name- Nationalism in Sanskrit (Minor)

Course Outcome:

- To grasp the concept of nation and nation building from an emic perspective.
- To understand the importance of the Indian National symbols and their philosophies which are the symbols of Indian thought and ethos.
- To appreciate Indian Knowledge system that evolved for a holistic development in the society.
- To grasp the original idea of Bharatavarsha, its boundaries and values.

Paper Code: SEC0309903

Paper Name- Sanskrit and Indian Knowledge System

Course Outcome:

- The students will be able to know the concept of Indian knowledge system and its domain.
- They will also have knowledge how Sanskrit helps in attaining Indian Knowledge system.
- They will be acquainted with the relation between Vedic Shiksha and modern Phonology.
- Students will also be able to know about how Sanskrit grammar is related to modern linguistics.
- The students will also have knowledge on vedic mathematics.

Fourth Semester:

Paper Code:

Paper Name: Classical Sanskrit Literature (Compulsory)

Course Outcome-

- To grasp the concept of poetry from an Emic perspective.
- To understand the importance of the two great Indian Epics, i.e. the Ramayana and the Mahabharata.
- To appreciate Indian Knowledge system that evolved for a holistic development in the society.
- To grasp the original idea of human values and their requirements in the present Society.
- To gain specific knowledge in the field of Ancient Indian literature that remained a source of inspiration for many writers of the world.

Paper Code-

Paper Name- Basics of Sanskrit Grammar (DSE, Elective I)

Course Outcome-

- To grasp the basic concept of Sanskrit Grammar.
- To understand the importance of Sanskrit grammar in any type of linguistic study.
- To appreciate Indian Knowledge System that evolved for a linguistic treasure house.
- To grasp the basic techniques of translation studies.

Paper Code-

Paper Name- History of Vedic Literature (DSE, Elective II)

Course Outcome-

- To grasp the techniques used in the Vedic Mantras.
- To understand the importance of Vedic study in the Modern day world.
- To appreciate Indian knowledge system that evolved in the Vedic society.
- To correlate Vedic knowledge in various field of modern education.
- To bring a synergy between Indian Knowledge System and various modern academic concepts and ideas.

Paper Code-

Paper Name- Poetics and Prosody (DSE, Elective II)

Course Outcome-

- To grasp the literary merits and demerits of Sanskrit writings.
- To understand the importance of Literary Techniques applied by the ancient Indian writers of Sanskrit.
- To appreciate Indian knowledge system that evolved in the society reflected through various Sanskrit works.
- To correlate various ideas and concepts of Sanskrit poetics with different fields of modern knowledge system.

SEC and AEC syllabus are not available.