Sarat Chandra Goswami

A brief profile

Sarat Chandra Goswami, a great philosopher and administrator, became the Principal, Handique Girls' College on 6th of February, 1965. He succeeded the founder Principal, Rajabala Das. His able leadership and guidance for nine years had played a major role in shaping the College in its present form and was instrumental in determining the position that the College today occupies in the field of higher education of the state of Assam. In 1993, the college decided to keep the memory of S.C. Goswami alive by organizing the annual "All Assam Sarat Chandra Goswami Memorial Inter College Debate Competition".

S.C. Goswami was born on 1st November, 1915 at Gaiya Satra in Kamrup District. His father's name was Krishnadev Goswami. He passed HSLC in 1933 with First division from Cotton Collegiate Higher Secondary School. He passed intermediate examination in Arts from Cotton College in 1935 securing first division. He Post Graduated in Philosophy from Calcutta University and from the same university he passed B.L. Examination in 1940 securing First Class.

From 1942, he had been serving as a Lecturer in Philosophy and Vice-Principal in Handique Girls' College. In 1965, he became the Principal of this college and served till 1971. From 1974 to 1978 he became the treasurer of Gauhati University. He was also the Chairman of SEBA from 1978-1981. Goswami was also the member of Assam Legislative Assembly during the period from 1957-1965. He was the Chairman of Kamrup District Central Co-operative Bank Ltd. for three years. He became the President of All Assam Principal's Council for consecutive terms and President of All Assam Teachers' Association for one term.

Goswami authored several books in Assamese; a few of them are (i) Socrates, Plato and Aristotle; (ii) Confucious, (iii) Plato, (iv) Manovijnan, (v) Mahatma Gandhi Jeevan Kahini, (vi) Assam Panchayati Raj Act. 1972 and (vii) Manovijnan Pravesika Vol. I & II (Co-author). Besides, he published many papers in the journals of National and International repute. We are grateful for his extremely valuable contribution to the overall academic development of our state. We feel honoured to pay our respectful tribute on this occasion which is observed annually in the college.
